LAND OF MIDNIGHT DREAMS

Lyrics by Tony Barlow

TONY BARLOW

She's walking down the streets tonight
She's looking at the sights
As all the traffic rushes by her
In those cities of the night

Her head is full of visions now
Of big-time movie scenes
As she rides down every highway tonight
In a Land of Midnight Dreams

*She's in a Land of Midnight Dreams
High up on the silver screens
Chasing all those Blues Town Scenes
In a Land of Midnight Dreams*

He's sitting on a train tonight
He's got a ticket in his hand
He's leaving his hometown
Searching for the promised land

His head is full of visions now
Of big-time movie scenes
As he rides down every highway tonight
In his Land of Midnight Dreams

*He's in a Land of Midnight Dreams
High up on the silver screens
Chasing all those Blues Town Scenes
Through a Land of Midnight Dreams*

And somewhere in the city tonight
Beneath a neon light
They meet up with each other
And make love all through the night

Somewhere in the city tonight
They see what it all means
To be two midnight riders
On the Street of Blue Blue Dreams

*They're in a Land of Midnight Dreams
High up on the silver screens
Chasing all those Blues Town Scenes
Through a Land of Midnight Dreams*

And just for a moment all the pain slips away
As the Sun and Moon
Go arching through the rhythms that they play

And as she arcs into the Skyline
As he arches into the Dawn
Somewhere in the distance
You can hear this whole world being born

*Into a Land of Midnight Dreams
High up on the silver screens
Chasing all those Blues Town Scenes
Through a Land of Midnight Dreams*

And somewhere in the city tonight
A light flashes through the sky
As though through a Hotel Window
Two Lovers spirits fly

Somewhere in the city tonight
The city that never sleeps
You can hear those bluestown rhythms
Rolling through the heat

*In a Land of Midnight Dreams
They're high up on the silver screens
Chasing all those Blues Town Scenes
In a Land of Midnight Dreams*

And all across the world
Across The Cities of the Night
Lovers are riding down all those Highways in the Light

All across the world tonight
Upon those silver screens
They're breathing New Life
Into their Land of Midnight Dreams

*They're in a Land of Midnight Dreams
High up on the silver screens
Chasing all those Blues Town Scenes
In a Land of Midnight Dreams*
